

REBEKAH NOTES

A number of local Rebekahs attended the reception at Edelweiss Lodge, Los Angeles, Friday evening, given in honor of Miss May Reynolds, vice-president of the Rebekah Assembly.

A reception was held Wednesday evening for Mrs. John Waite and Mrs. Jack Terry, who were delegates to the Rebekah Assembly, held recently at San Francisco.

Trio Rebekah Lodge was represented at Friendship Night at San Pedro by Mr. and Mrs. Morgan, Mrs. H. B. Goodrich, Mrs. John Waite, Mrs. H. C. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Brumpton, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baker.

JOIN FEDERATION

On Wednesday, May 19, Mrs. L. C. Miller and Mrs. C. E. Benzel, representatives of the local Lutheran Ladies' Aid and Missionary Society, attended the annual federation meeting of the Ladies Aid of Southern California in Santa Ana. After the regular morning and afternoon program the annual business meeting took place, at which time the Torrance Ladies' Aid and Missionary Society of 22 members was received into the federation. According to a resolution passed, a circulating library will be established in the federation, each society making contributions to the cause. The local ladies have already decided to send in their quota.

Otto Bach and J. V. Murray of Torrance and Al Bates of Los Angeles motored to Kramer Hill Sunday to visit Joseph Madore, formerly of Torrance, who has a claim there.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Baird were dinner guests of Long Beach friends Sunday.

S. H. Bradbury, with a party of friends including Mr. Gray of Lomita and Mr. Crowley of Long Beach, had a very enjoyable fishing trip to Ice House Canyon over the weekend.
